GUESTS OF EMPEROR

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth Are Royally Entertained

FELICITATIONS QUITE GENERAL

After Dinner the Party Went on Quarter Deck to Witness the Illuminations.

Kiel, By Cable.—Emperor William, when he was certain of the day on which Mr. and Mrs. Longworth would arrive here, telegraphed to Princess Eitel Frederick asking if she could not come to Kiel at once so that Mrs. Longworth could be entertained aboard the Hamburg, the Emperor's improvised yacht. It is the emperor's rule never to invite women on board his vessel unless the emperor or one of the imperial princesses are present.

Empress Augusta Victoria, it is understood, desires to remain near the crown princess, and Princess Henry of Prussia is taking a holiday in Bavaria, and Princess Eitel Frederick, who also is a bride, had arranged to go on a cruise in the Hamburg with the imperial party after the regatta, but upon receiving the emperor's telegram she came from Potsdam immediately, arriving here Saturday evening with Prince Eitel, and Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were invited to dine with the emperor.

It was quite an American evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, Allison, Howard and George Mott were present. Princess Eitel was amiable and Emperor William jolly and complimentary to America and Americans.

After the dinner the guests and Princess Eitel with the emperor and the emperor's staff, went on the quarter deck of the Hamburg to witness the illuminations. The club house, the hotel and other buildings were outlined in electric lights, and the 16 bathtubs, 10 cruizers, 12 merchant ships and 100 yachts in the harbor were strung with incandescent globes while many searchlights played about made a gorgeous scene. Just above the room in the hotel, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, were the Stars and Stripes in colored lights. A great assemblage from Kiel and neighboring towns crowded the water front to witness the illumination.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were detained by Emperor William until after 11 o'clock. The illumination ended with every warship sending up blazing rockets.

This property will be taken in charge under the usual regulations governing national cemeteries and will be converted into a beautiful spot.

C., were killed. Conductor Meacham and an unknown man were injured. The accident happened while one of the trains was shifting cars. ner.

SPEAKS FOR HIMSELF

Taking for His Text the Statement That He is Being Described as Conservative, Nebraska Declares That Radical Measures Against Private Monopolies Are Necessary to Save Legitimate Wealth From Odium.

Trondhjem, Norway. By Cable.—William J. Bryan has arrived here to attend the coronation of King Haakon. Mr. Bryan, taking for his text the statement that he was being described as conservative, said:

"I am not responsible for the phrases used in regard to me; but I am responsible for my position on public questions. That position ought to be well known. Take the trust question for instance, as it seems uppermost just now. My position is, that private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable. That was the Democratic platform in 1900 and the plank was incorporated in 1904 and it is the only tenable position."

"There is some talk of controlling the trusts—you might as well talk of controlling burglary. We do not say men shall not steal a little bit, or in some particular way, but that they shall not steal at all. It is so of private monopolies. It is not sufficient to control or regulate them—they must be absolutely and totally destroyed. Corporations should be controlled and regulated, but private monopolies must be exterminated, root and branch. Now you can call that a radical doctrine. Yet it is more conservative to apply this remedy now than to wait until predatory wealth has by its lawlessness brought odium on legitimate accumulations."

"What used to be called radical is now called conservative because people have been investigating. The doctrine has not changed but public sentiment is making progress."

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will spend a week in Norway and will then go to England.

HAIL THREE FEET DEEP.

Terrific Storm Sweeps Over Portion of Orange County, Causing Thousands of Dollars Worth of Damage to Crops.

Durham, Special.—From parties who were in the city today particulars of a hail storm that did great damage in the northern part of Orange county Tuesday night were learned. The loss was something fearful, large planters losing everything. The hail belt was from three-quarters of a mile in width. The storm did not last more than 15 or 20 minutes. In that length of time thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed. "In some places," said Mr. S. T. Pittard, who lost his entire crop of tobacco, oats, cotton and corn, "the ice was piled three feet deep yesterday morning. This was in ditches, or places where it was lifted." Continuing, he said that yesterday morning one of his neighbors gathered a guano sack full of the hail stones and carried them to Hillsboro, a distance of 11 miles. "When he reached Hillsboro," said my informant, "the stones were as large as guinea eggs. This gives you some idea of the size of the stones when they fell, these being gathered after lying on the ground all night."

Telling of some of the losers, Mr. Pittard said that he lost his entire crop of tobacco, 90,000 hills; all his corn, oats and cotton. Fate Cooper lost from 80,000 to 90,000 hills of tobacco, Joe Hurst from 50,000 to 60,000 hills, Rufus Wilkins 35,000 hills, John Starfield, D. L. Wells, William Ellison, Will Wright, Chas. Wilson, Mrs. Anderson and numbers of others lost practically their entire crop. All of these parties lost corn, cotton and oats, in addition to the large loss on the tobacco crop. The first hail belt was 11 miles north of Hillsboro, near Carr's post-office. Here the belt was little more than a half mile wide. At Caldwell, a distance of nine or ten miles, the loss was fearful. The average width of the belt was probably from three-quarters to one mile. The storm went into the western part of Person county.

One year ago this same section was visited by a fearful hail storm and wind storm and the damage occasioned to the tobacco crop was fearful. This year some of those who lost a year ago are again losers, but in most instances the storm belt was a little removed from the old belt and the losers this year as a rule, are those who escaped the destructive storm a year ago.

Mr. Pittard said that he did not know what the farmers in this belt would do. The oat crop is not worth cutting and the corn is left standing in many instances without a single blade left on the stalks.

China Pays for Missionaries.

WILL VISIT PANAMA

President Roosevelt Decides to See For Himself

WILL GET INFORMATION DIRECT

Announcement is Made at White House That the Chief Executive Will Sail on One of Navy's Big Cruisers in Latter Part of October or Early November, to See Whether Dirt is Flying—Will Confine Visit to American Zone.

Washington, Special.—President Roosevelt will visit the isthmus of Panama to make a personal investigation of the work of construction of the Panama canal.

This announcement was made at the White House by Secretary Loeb after a conference with the President. It is expected the President will leave Washington for Panama the latter part of next October or in the early days of November. He will be absent about three weeks. The trip probably will be made on one of the big cruisers of the navy, but what vessel will carry the President and his party is not yet known.

None of the details of the trip has yet been worked out. Beyond the bare decision to make the trip, the President has reached practically no conclusions. It is likely he will be accompanied on the journey by Secretary Taft and Chairman Shonts, of the Panama canal commission, but even this has not been determined definitely.

Wants to See For Himself.

The President long has desired personally to inspect the route of the canal and to make himself personally familiar with the great undertaking of constructing the waterway. The decision announced today, that he will visit the American zone on the Isthmus of Panama, was not reached hastily but has been under consideration for a considerable time. It is the expectation that the President will be able to spend at least a week on the canal zone, and in that time he will familiarize himself with the situation by a study of it at close range. He believes a personal visit to the canal zone will enable him to gather information that will be of immense advantage not only to the canal work itself, but to Congress and to the American people. Above all, it will enable him to handle with an absolute knowledge of the situation the great problems which will constantly be arising in connection with the work of canal construction and administration.

$60,000 Factory Fire in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., Special.—Fire destroyed the plants of the Atlanta Spring Bed Company and the Atlanta Iron and Brass Bed Company. The loss is estimated at $60,000, fully covered by insurance. At one time it was feared that the tanks of the Standard Oil Company, which joins one of the plants, would be ignited, but quick work by the fire department checked the flames in that direction.

Wages Raised at Fall River.

Fall River, Mass., Special.—The cotton manufacturers of this city have granted their operatives a 14 per cent. increase in wages. About 25,000 hands are benefited. The new scale, which will take effect July 2, is practically the same as that prevailing previous to July 1, 1904. As the other New England cotton manufacturing centers follow the lead of Fall River, as a rule, the change is expected ultimately to effect all cotton mill workers in this section.

The shooting was done by Walter Bailey, also colored, and was the result of a threatened assault upon Bailey's father, a colored minister.

Body Found in Well.

Elm City, Special.—The body of Mr. H. C. Braswell, who resides on his farm at Upper Town Creek church was found in a well and the remains were brought here for burial. Mr. Braswell probably committed suicide while suffering temporary insanity. No one saw him jump in the well, but a broken window in his room would lead to the impression that he jumped through that and plunging to the well jumped in. His body was in three or four feet of water, head downward.

TAFT AND CORTELYOU

Coming to the Republican State Convention.—Roosevelt interested in the State.—The putting of the Western Revenue District Under Civil Service a Heavy Blow to the Schemes of the Grafters.—The Keeping of the Office at Asheville a Blow to Selfish Ambition.—Congress Has Done Great Work for the People and Good Government.

Washington, D. C., June 26, 1906. Special to The Caucasian.
It is now expected that Congress will adjourn on Friday or Saturday. This has been indeed a most remarkable session. It is safe to say that more legislation that was aimed at real and great evils affecting the body politic has been enacted than ever before at one session in any Congress. These great reform measures are so familiar to the people that it is unnecessary to rehearse them here. The President has taken the lead in all of these reforms and while he has unfortunately met with a great deal of opposition in his own party, but in every instance he has triumphed in securing substantial results, if not all that justice required.

It is noticeable that the President did not have the united support of the Democrats of Congress in many of these reform measures which the Democratic party has declared for as their platform. The Democratic party declares for many good things, but the trouble with that party is that it is not able to win victories and is not in a position to carry out what it declares for, and when it does accidentally win, as it did under the Cleveland administration, it utterly fails to live up to its promises. Then again, when the Democrats, who are elected have an opportunity to unite, they support some great reform measures, as they have had during the past session of Congress, they refuse to support them, or at least divide their support.

The Appointment of Collector Brown.
The appointment of Mr. George H. Brown, of Statesville, as collector of the Western District of North Carolina has been very favorably commented upon by the Republicans of the State who have come here. They all speak of Mr. Brown's high character and business ability and predict a highly successful administration of the office under him. The appointment of men of the qualifications and high character of Mr. Brown to Federal positions is fortunate for the party, no matter upon whose recommendation they are appointed. It will not only mean high class government service but it will impress most favorably at this time a great mass of the independent voters of the State who are outside of the Democratic party and who would like to join the party of progress and prosperity.

Mr. Blackburn claimed the credit for the appointment of Mr. Brown, but if he expected to use Mr. Brown and his office for partisan and political purposes he will be woefully disappointed. The President did not appoint Mr. Brown because Mr. Blackburn wanted him, but he appointed him because he thought he was one of the best, if not the very best men to administer the office, but at the same time the President determined that the office should not be used by Mr. Blackburn or anyone else to further their political ambitions.

Therefore the President promptly put the office under Civil Service and instructed that no man who was now in the office under Mr. Harkins was to be removed except for cause, and that no man was to be appointed to office except for his special fitness, and that he should select such men regardless of who recommended them. Mr. Blackburn also received another very sharp blow when the President decided that the office was not to be removed to Statesville but was to remain in Asheville.

Taft and Cortelyou to Visit the State.
The State will be especially honored next month by a visit from two of the members of President Roosevelt's Cabinet. Secretary Taft will address the Republican State Convention on Monday, July 9th at 8:30, and Postmaster General Cortelyou, who is also Republican National Chairman will address the Convention on Tuesday afternoon.

Secretary Taft, in announcing his final decision to attend the Republican State Convention stated that he had had the invitation under advisement for some time trying to adjust his other engagements so that he could attend.

He had an appointment to address the National Lawyers Association at Put-in-Bay on Lake Erie on July 11, at 9 a. m., but found that he could not reach this appointment if he went to Greensboro on July 10th. He then agreed to go to Greensboro and address the convention on July 9th. Later on he found that he could not even do this and reach Put-in-Bay earlier than the afternoon of July 11th, whereupon he requested that the committee to change his address from 9 o'clock in the morning to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, so that he could attend the Republican State Convention.

The fact that both of these distinguished speakers have consented to attend and address the Republican State Convention shows the interest the National Republican Administration is taking in North Carolina as the most promising Southern Republican state.
